

Open Position: Combat Antisemitism Movement - Antisemitism Research Center (ARC)

Job Title: Research Analyst Internship

Organization: Combat Antisemitism Movement - Antisemitism Research Center (ARC)

Location: Israel

Position Type: Paid Internship

Overview: Founded in 2019, CAM has emerged as a leading new voice in the fight against antisemitism. With the Holocaust receding into historical memory and Jews facing a growing proliferation of threats, fresh approaches are needed to confront this age-old societal scourge. CAM fosters groundbreaking alliances that transcend traditional divides, reaches diverse audiences with initiatives geared for specific demographics, and forges relationships with policymakers at the global, national, and local levels.

The Antisemitism Research Center, a pillar of the Combat Antisemitism Movement, meticulously monitors antisemitic incidents worldwide, compiling extensive data to inform and guide policymakers. By analyzing trends and providing actionable insights, the center supports the development of effective strategies to combat antisemitism. Its research aids in raising awareness, shaping public policy, and fostering a global response to this pervasive issue.

Job Description: The Antisemitism Research Center by CAM is seeking a dedicated and detail-oriented Research Intern to join our team. The intern will play a crucial role in monitoring, documenting, and analyzing incidents of antisemitism worldwide. This position offers an excellent opportunity to contribute to meaningful research and gain hands-on experience in data analysis, trend identification, and policy development.

Key Responsibilities:

- Monitoring Incidents: Track and document global incidents of antisemitism through various sources, including news reports, social media, and official statements.

- Data Entry: Accurately input data on antisemitic incidents into the organization's database, ensuring thoroughness and attention to detail.
- Trend Analysis: Analyze collected data to identify patterns, trends, and emerging threats related to antisemitism. Assist in the development of analytical reports and visual data presentations.
- Background Research: Conduct in-depth background research to support the development of memos and white papers on antisemitism-related topics. This includes reviewing academic literature, policy documents, and other relevant materials.
- Report Preparation: Assist in drafting, editing, and finalizing memos, white papers, and other research publications. Ensure clarity, accuracy, and coherence in all written outputs.
- Collaboration: Work closely with senior researchers and other team members to support ongoing projects and initiatives. Participate in regular team meetings and contribute to brainstorming sessions.

How to Apply:

If you are a dedicated, detail-oriented person with a strong commitment to combating antisemitism and would like to join our global team, please submit your CV and a brief cover letter highlighting your relevant experience and why you are interested in interning with CAM. Applications can be sent to Jonathan Michanie (jonathan@combatantisemitism.org).
